

A&P Mechanic

Airframe & Powerplant Mechanic

Thunderbird's A&P Mechanics are responsible to perform 50 hour, 100 hour, and annual inspections on a fleet of 25 flight school aircraft. Provide general maintenance of flight school, as well as outside customer aircraft. Oversee and guide the work of up to three A&P mechanic apprentices. Report to lead mechanic and maintenance administration to coordinate inventory and scheduling needs and maintain satisfactory records and provide accurate log-book entries for customer and flight school aircraft.

Eligibility Requirements

A&P Mechanics are a vital part of the Thunderbird team. To be considered for this position, applicants must have an FAA Airframe & Powerplant License and . Experience working with piston engine aircraft is also highly desired. You need excellent communication skills and be well organized.

About Thunderbird

Thunderbird Aviation, a leader in aviation since 1962, is a full service provider of aviation fuels and aircraft maintenance at both Flying Cloud Airport and Crystal Airport. We are also one of the largest flight school in the Twin Cities.

Job Applications - Thunderbird Aviation